

Common Weed FAQs

Creeping Charlie or ground ivy is a particularly problematic weed because of the fact that it is resistant to a number of herbicides. The University of Wisconsin horticulture site has some information on effective methods available to help if you have this pest. Creeping Charlie

Choose from many assorted topics with short videos. Common purslane, University of California*

- Crabgrass, University of California*
- Dandelions, University of California*
- Quackgrass, University of Minnesota Extension