

Seed starting project was done in the spring when people are in the mood to start those seeds for their garden. Free seeds were available and seed starting trays. Successful talk!

This presentation was on propagation. Nancy and Shirley showed how to take cuttings from one plant to root, plant, and grow more plants.